

FEBRUARY VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH

JENNIFER HEWITT

What I like best about volunteering at Colony Cats:

I love doing my part to help the homeless and needy animals in our community. I wish I could take them all in myself, but since that's not possible, I like that I can contribute something to a great all-volunteer organization that does so much for animals in need.

My pets at home:

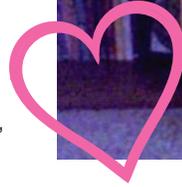

Our pets at home include Chloe, our cat who is 13-years old, Sidney, our 12-year old aussie mix (we think?), and Ace our 11-year old chow mix.

What I'd like you to know about me:

I've loved and had a special connection with animals since I was a little girl, so being involved with a rescue organization is a natural fit. I started volunteering with Colony Cats back in 2009. I was introduced to the group by Ace's foster mom (Marilyn) while attending one of Colony Cats' fundraising events. I am a graphic designer by profession and let Mona know I would be happy to donate my time and skills to help Colony Cats. The rest, as they say, is history.

Where you can find me when I'm not volunteering for Colony Cats:

Mostly spending time with my pets and my husband. One of my favorite things is walking the dogs and spending time out in nature. I love watching deer, hawks, ducks and other wildlife - Ace loves watching the deer too.

Dogs or Cats Rule?

To me, they both rule. I love them all. However, if you ask Chloe my cat, she would insist that she rules!

What's your advice to a new Colony Cats volunteer?

Colony Cats always needs volunteers. There are many ways you can help out. Whatever you CAN do to help out - DO. Whether it's at the Adoption Center, at offsite locations, fostering animals, helping at events - one hour or many hours - your help is needed and sooo appreciated.

Quote by Charles Dickens:

"What greater gift than the love of a cat?"
